

A summary of the opinions of graduates regarding the graduation certification of the 2020-2021 academic year

650 graduates participated in the survey, of which:

Faculty of General Medicine – 437,

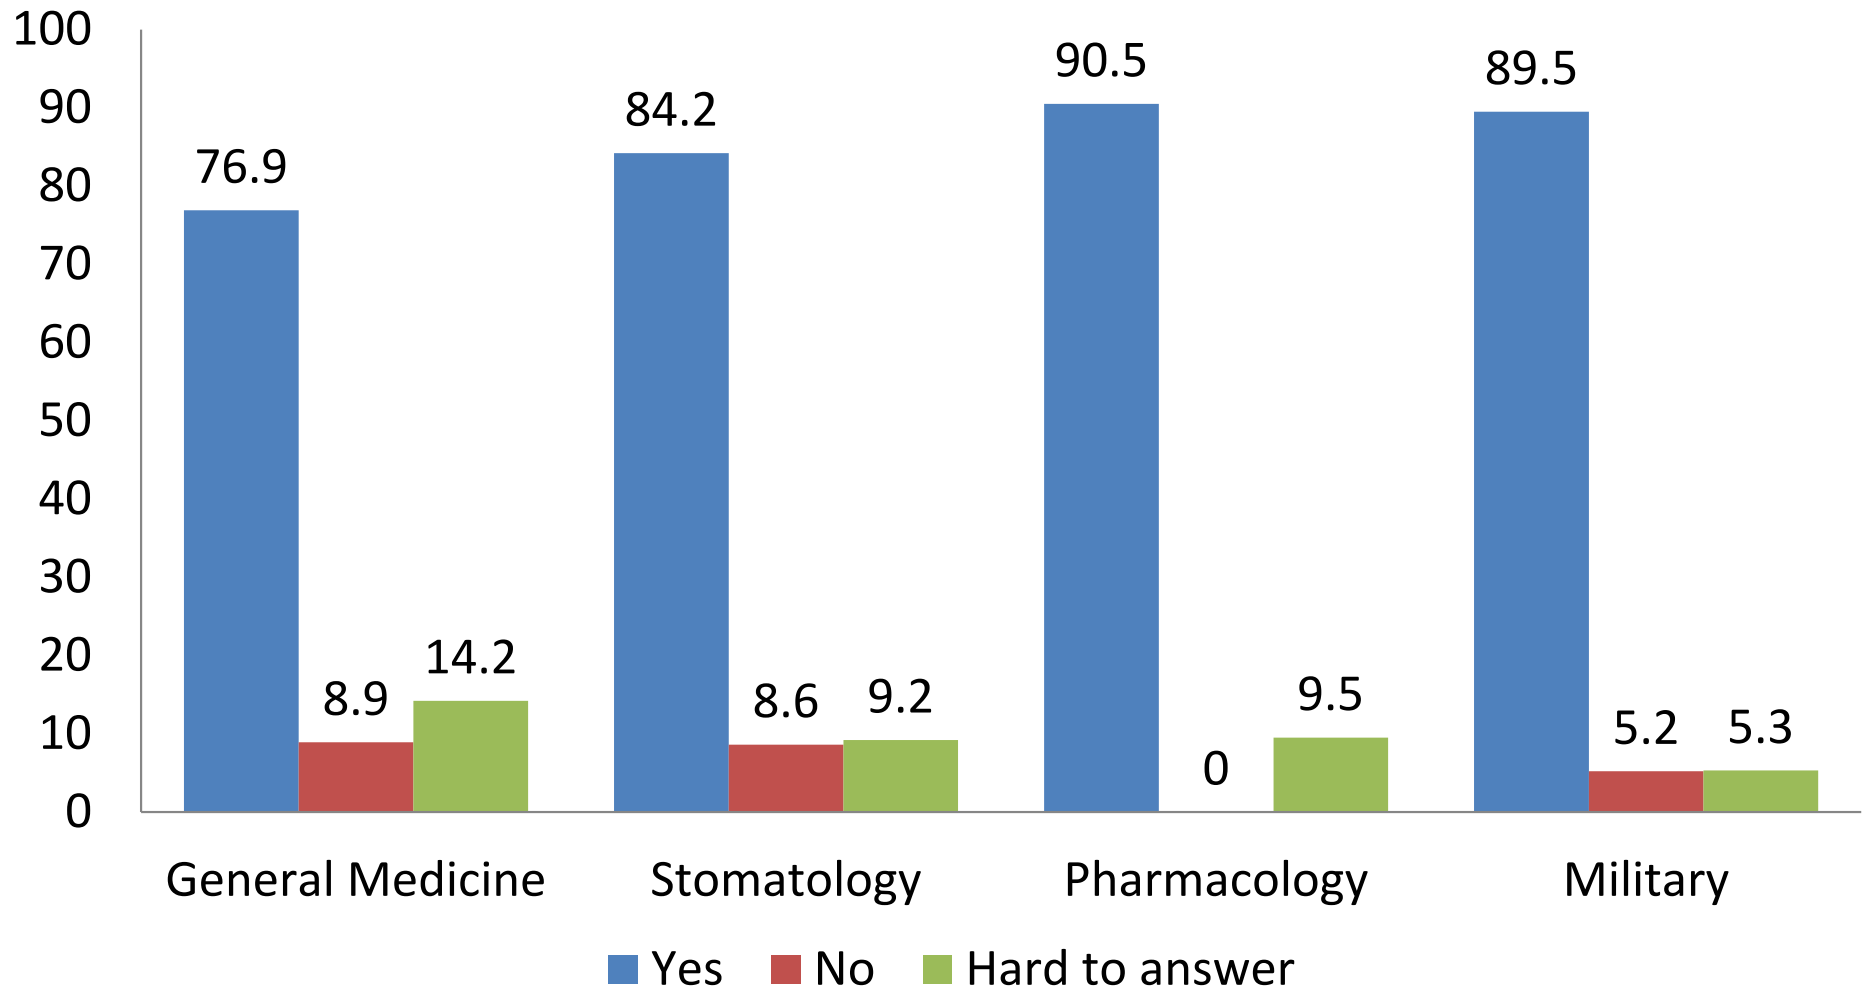

Faculty of Stomatology – 152,

Faculty of Pharmacology – 42,

Military Medical Faculty – 19

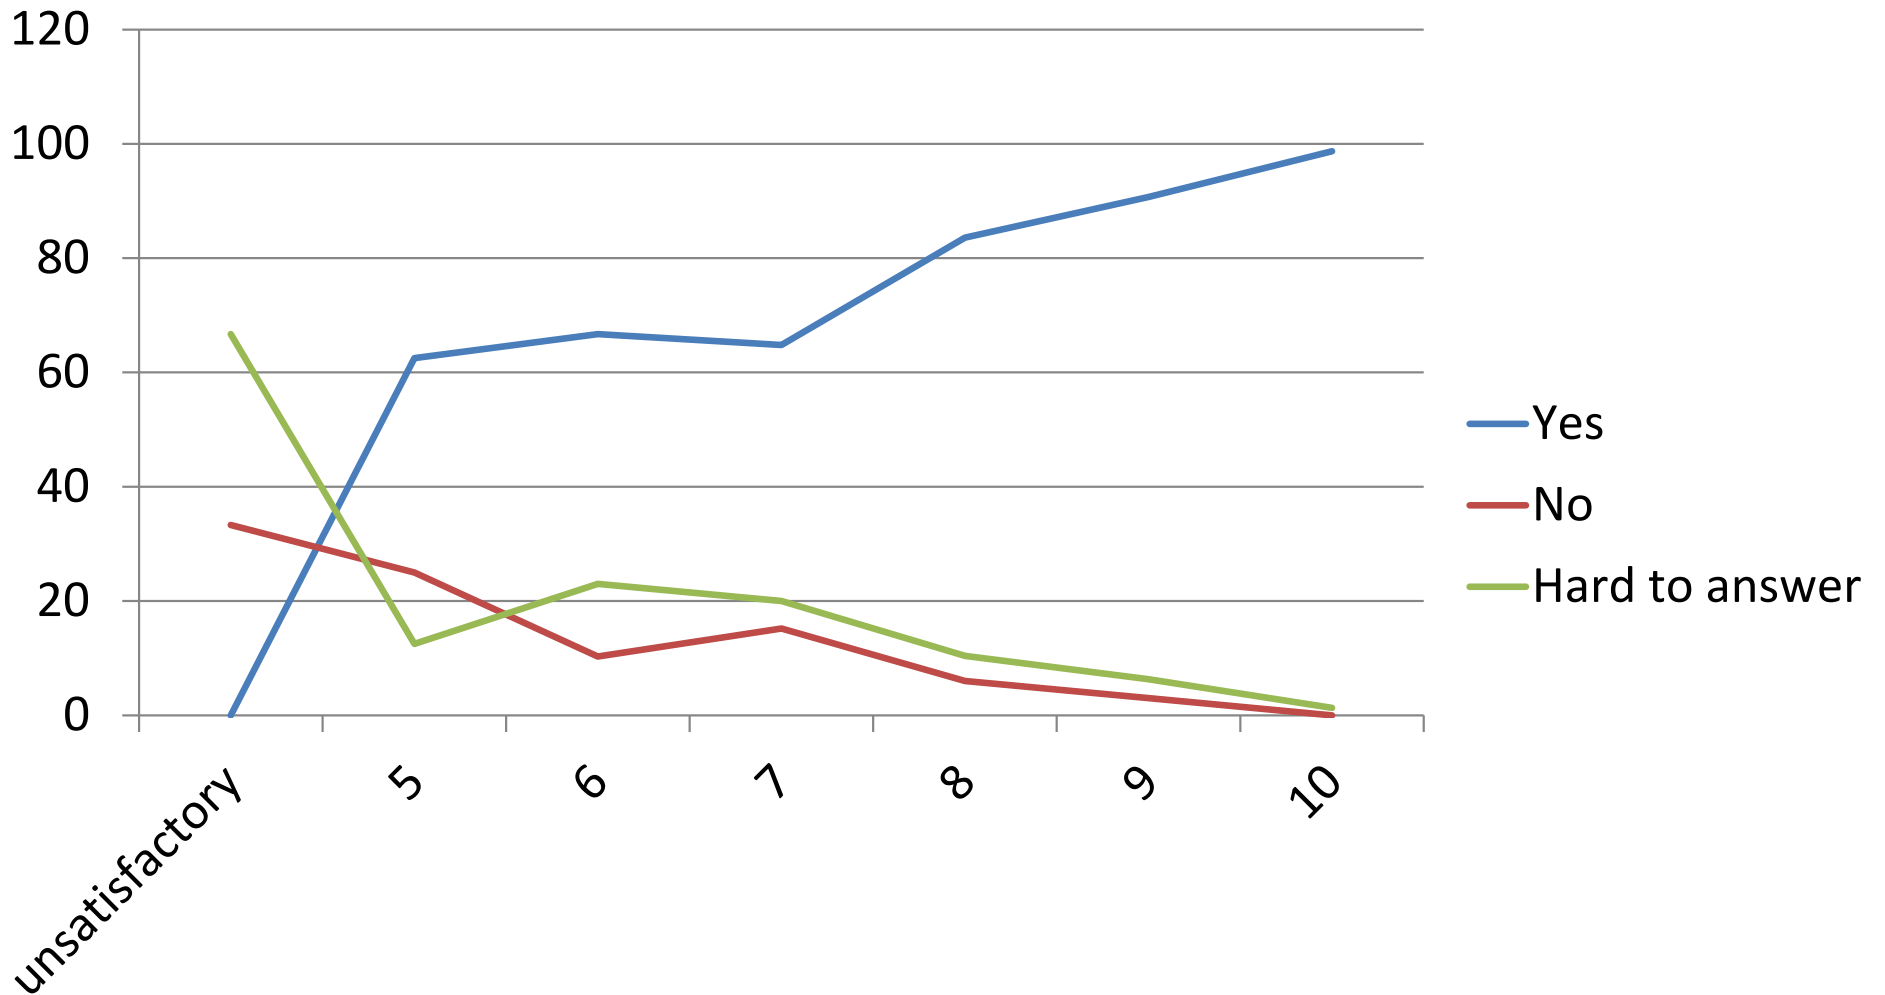

No statistically significant differences were identified depending on the score obtained

Are you satisfied with your grades?

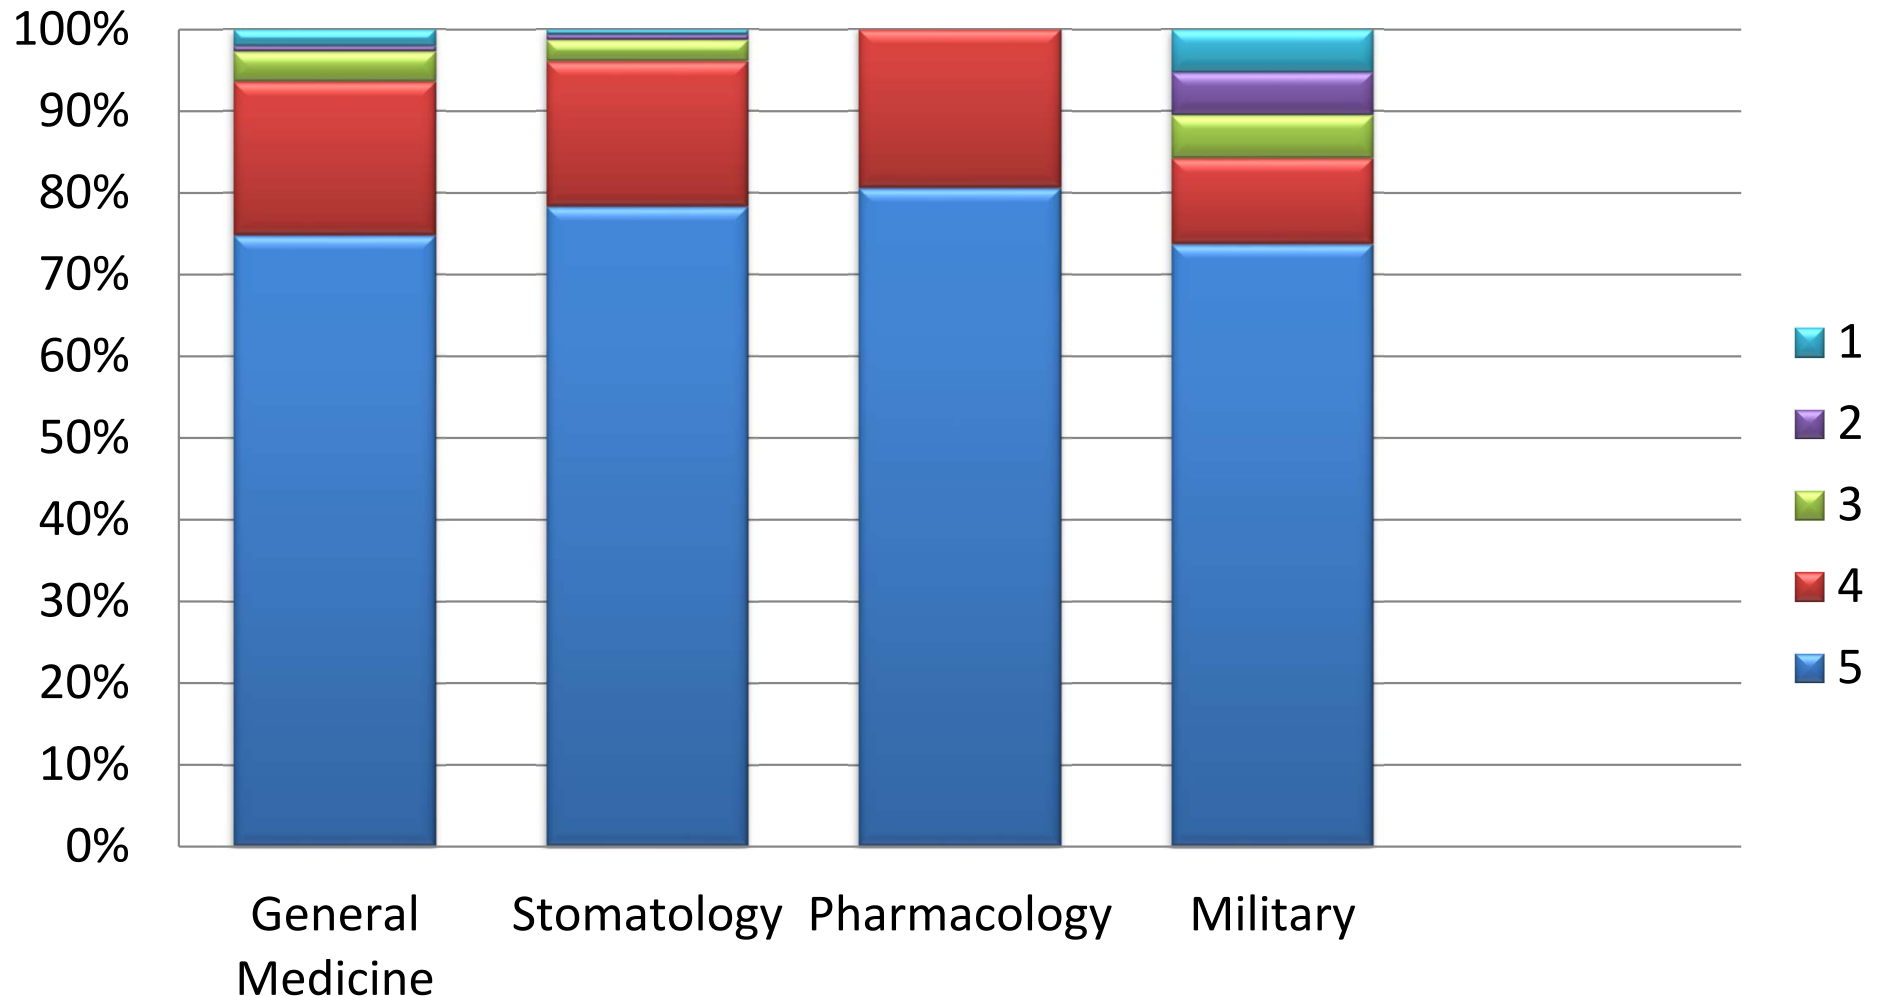

Are you satisfied with your grades?

(depending on the grade received)

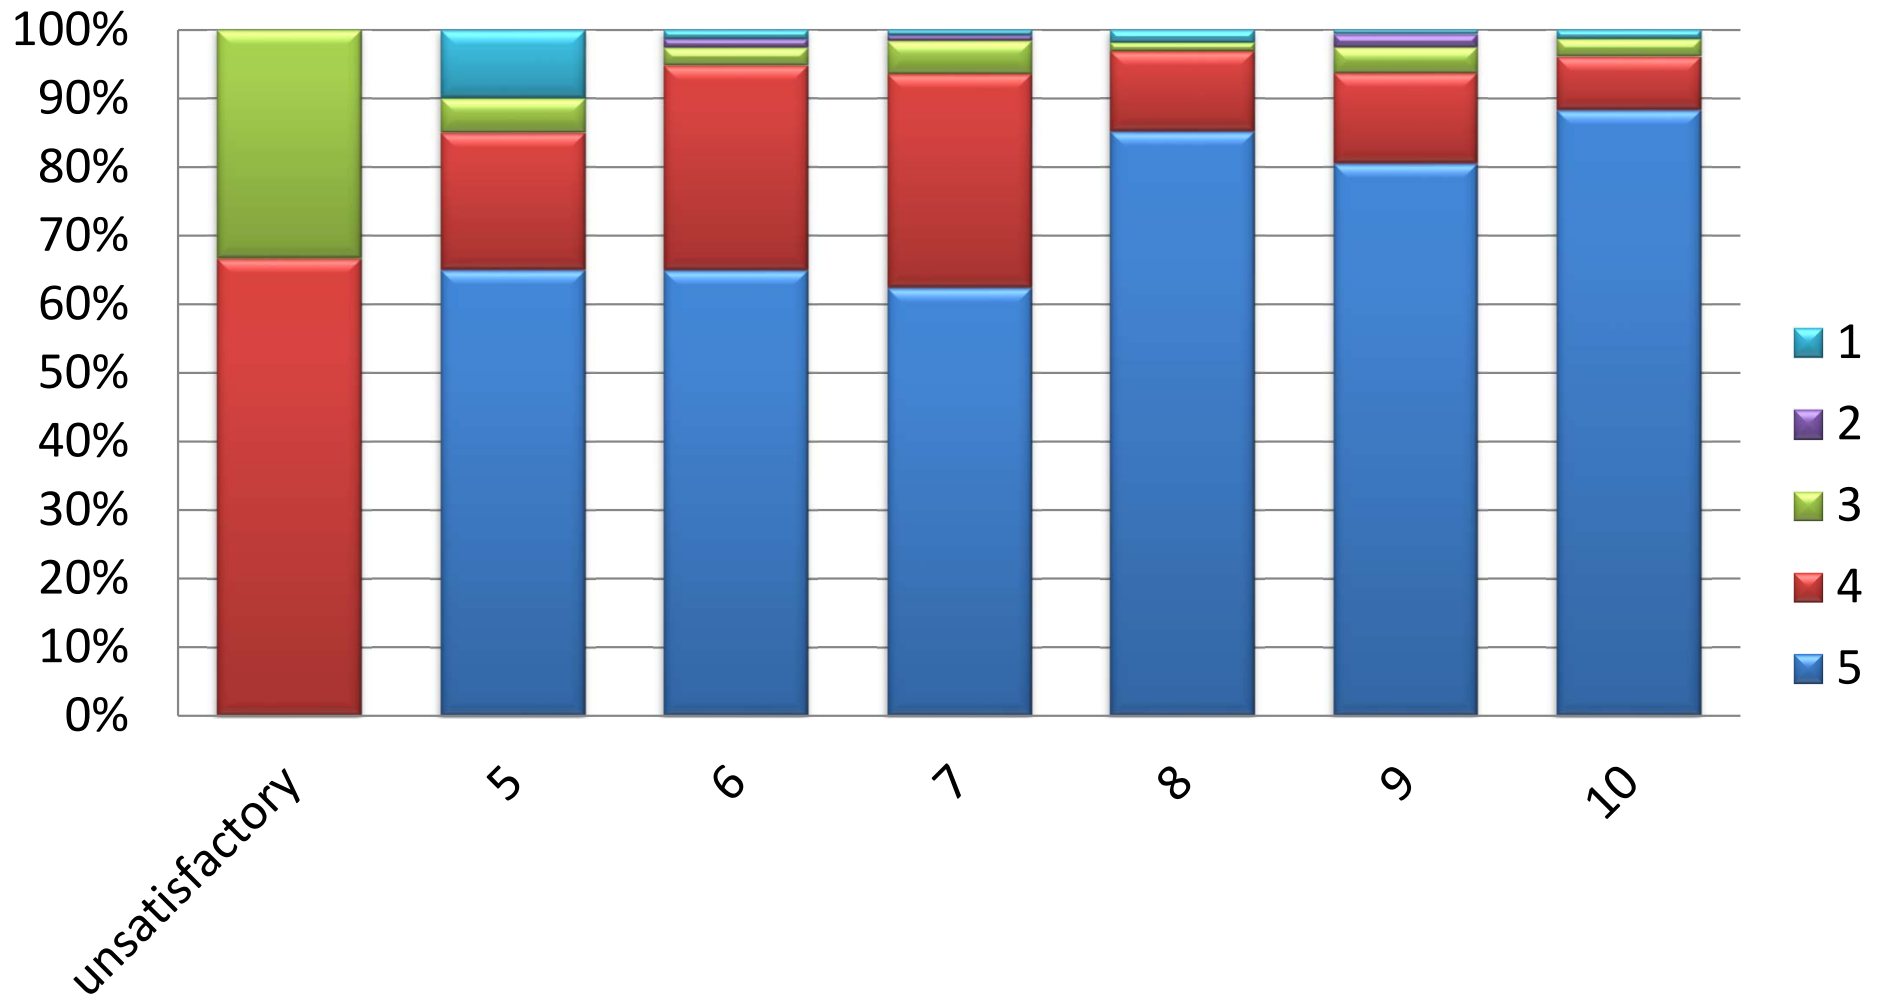

How objective were the committees during the exams?

practical skills test phase

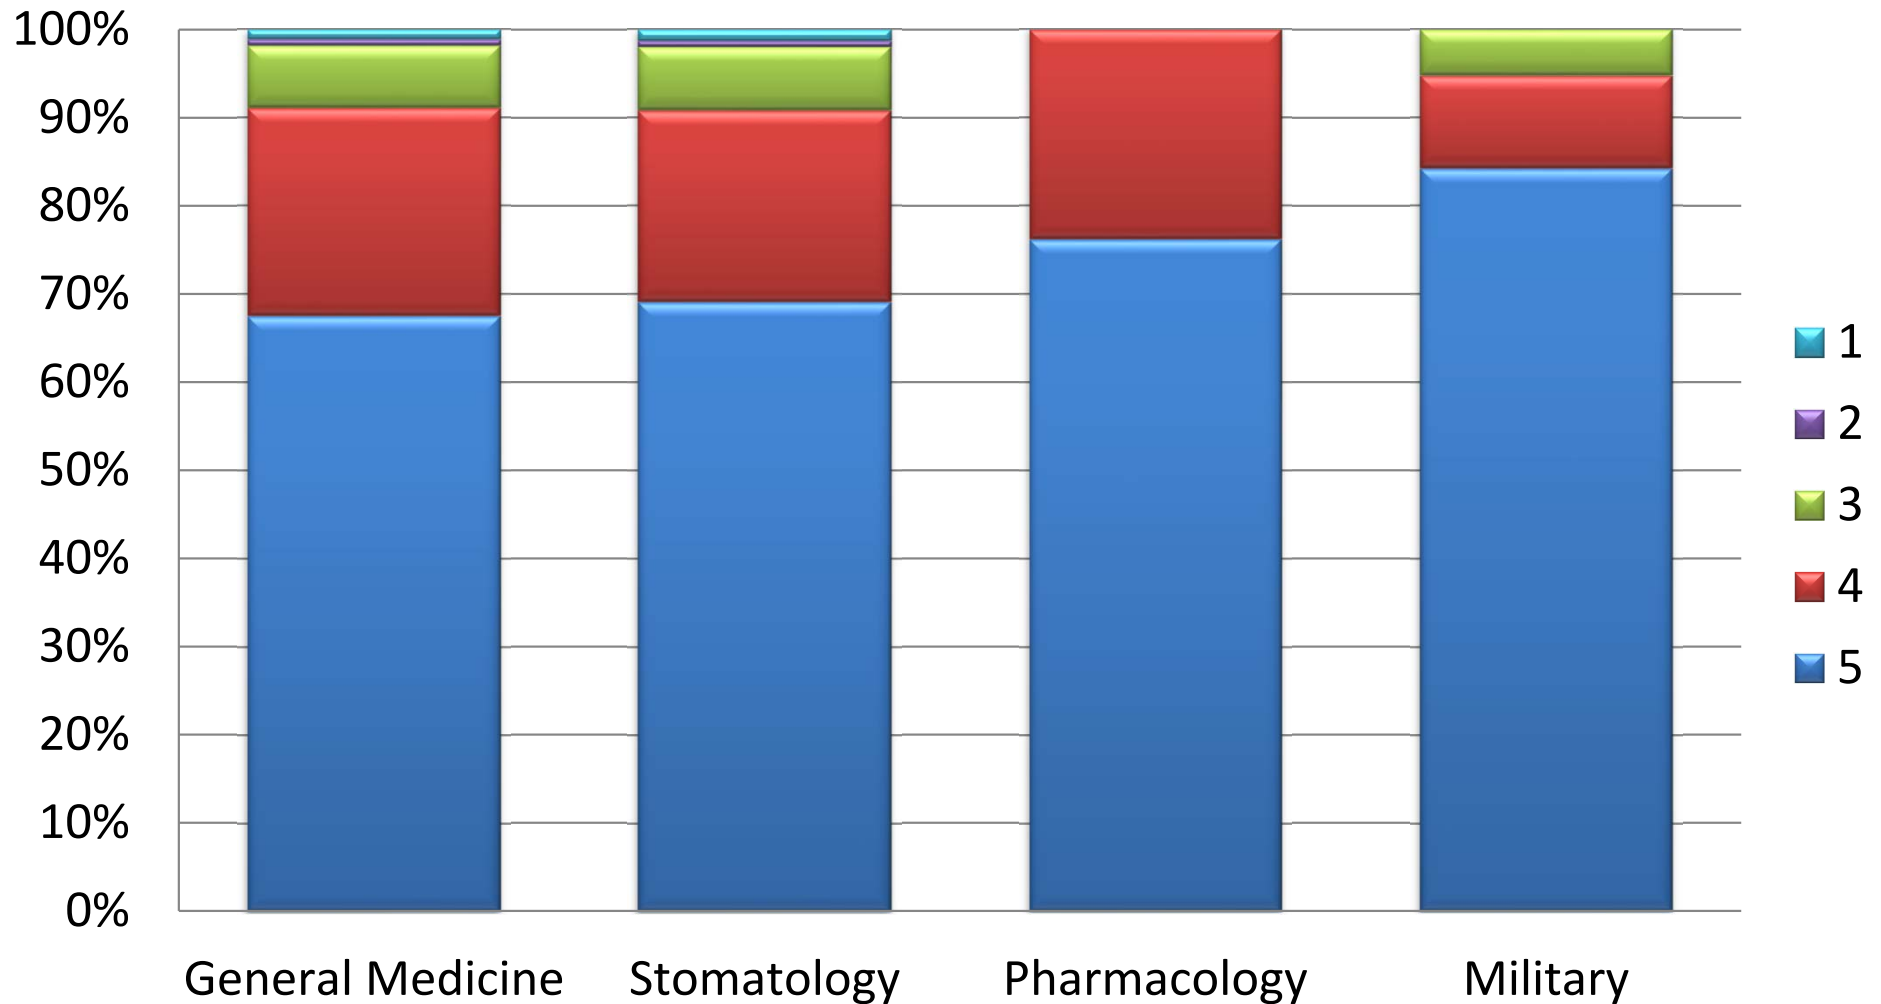

How objective were the committees during the exams?

practical skills test phase
(depending on the grade received)

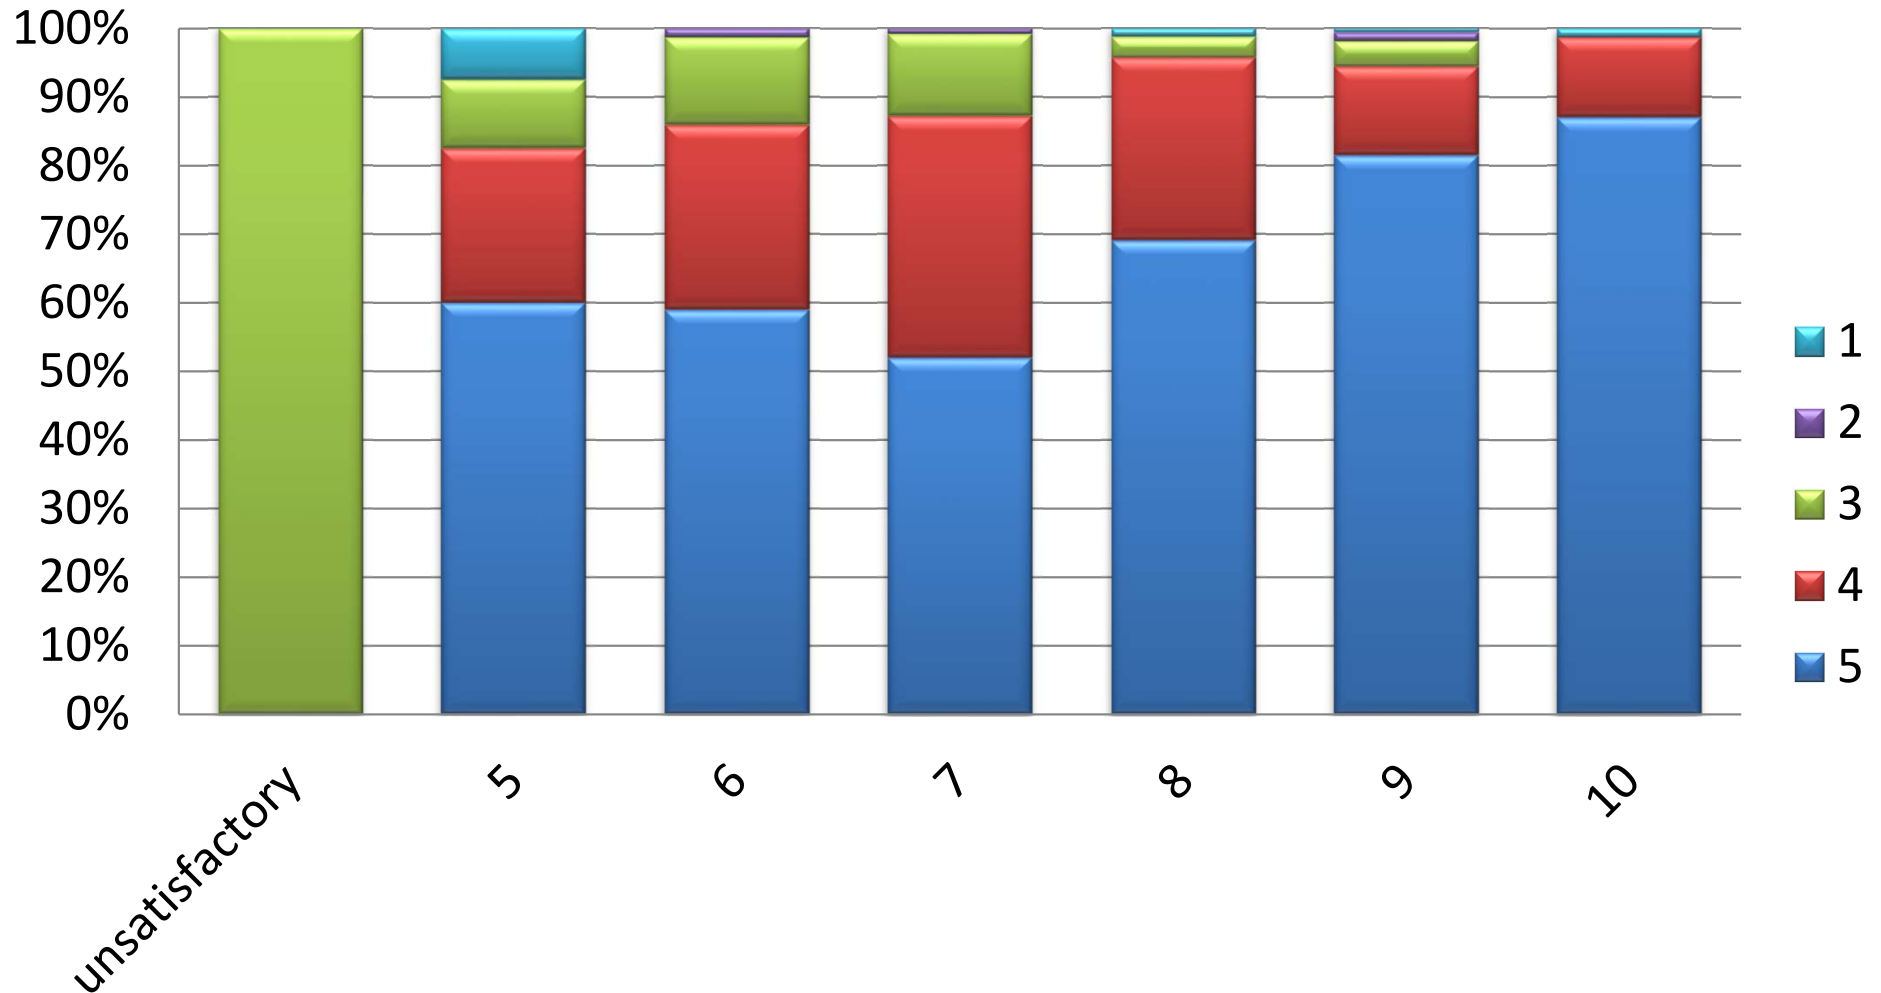

How objective were the committees during the exams? oral exam phase

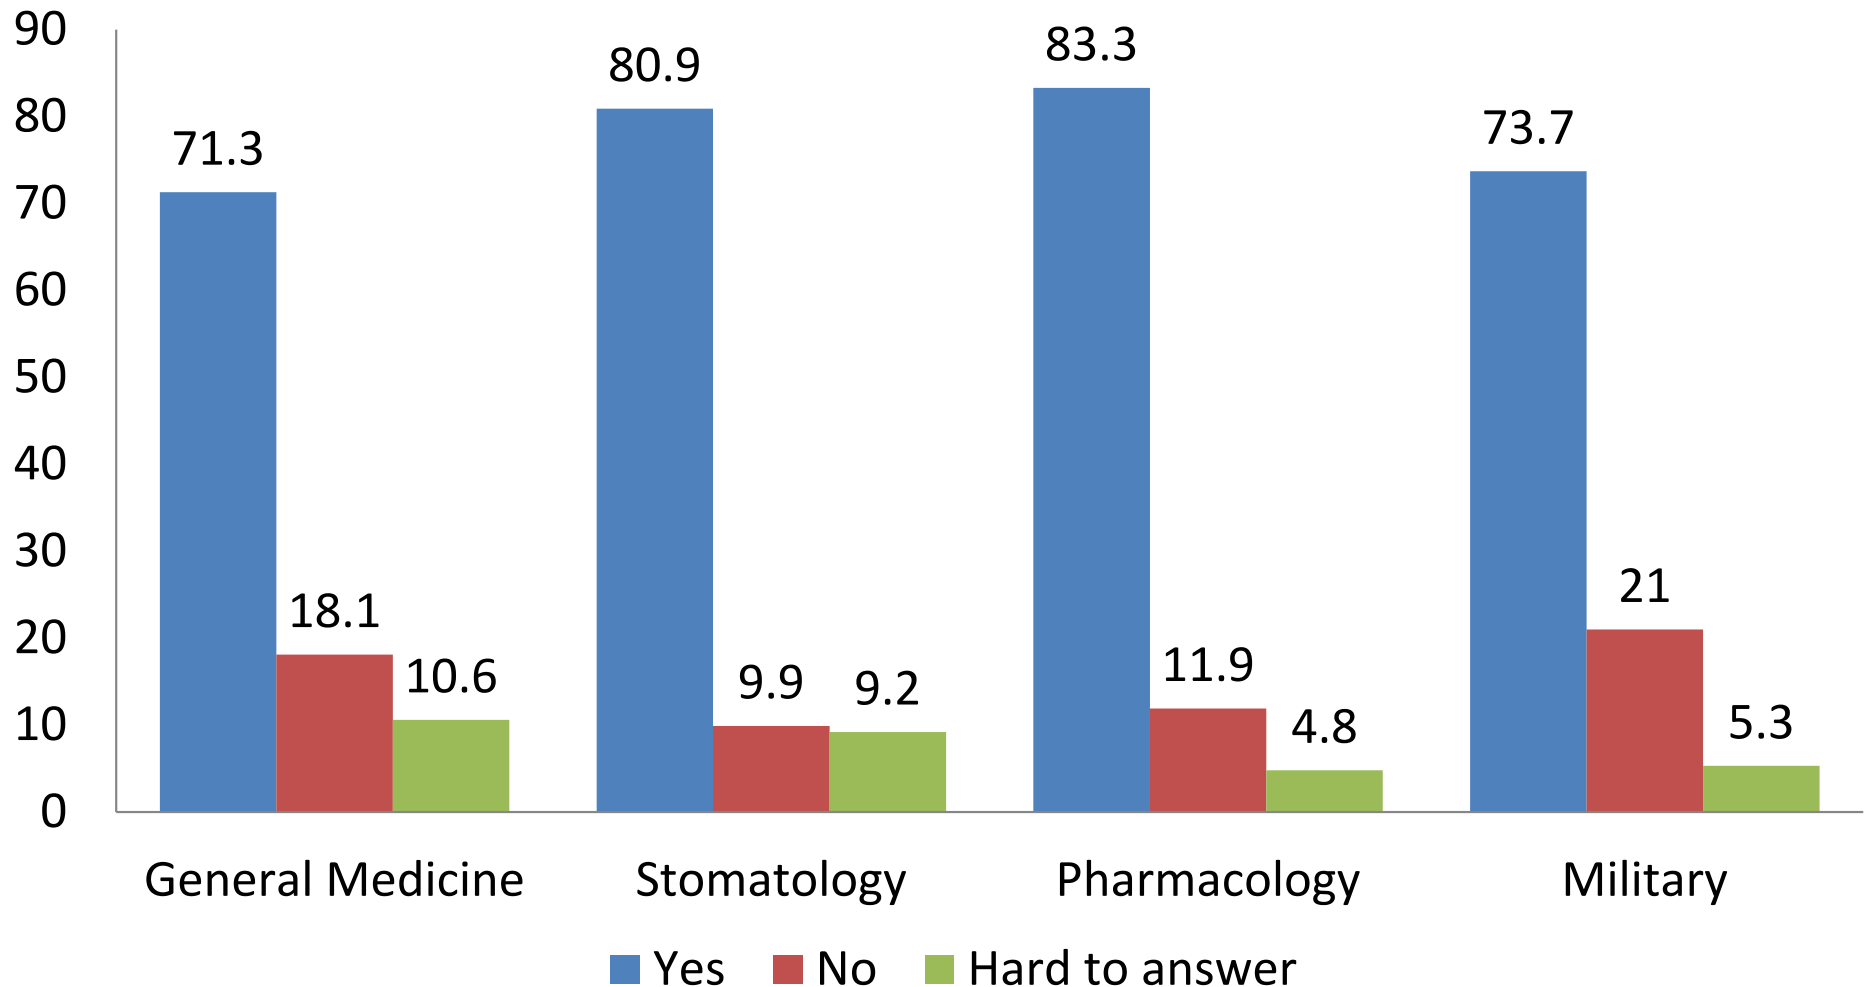

How objective were the committees during the exams?

oral exam phase

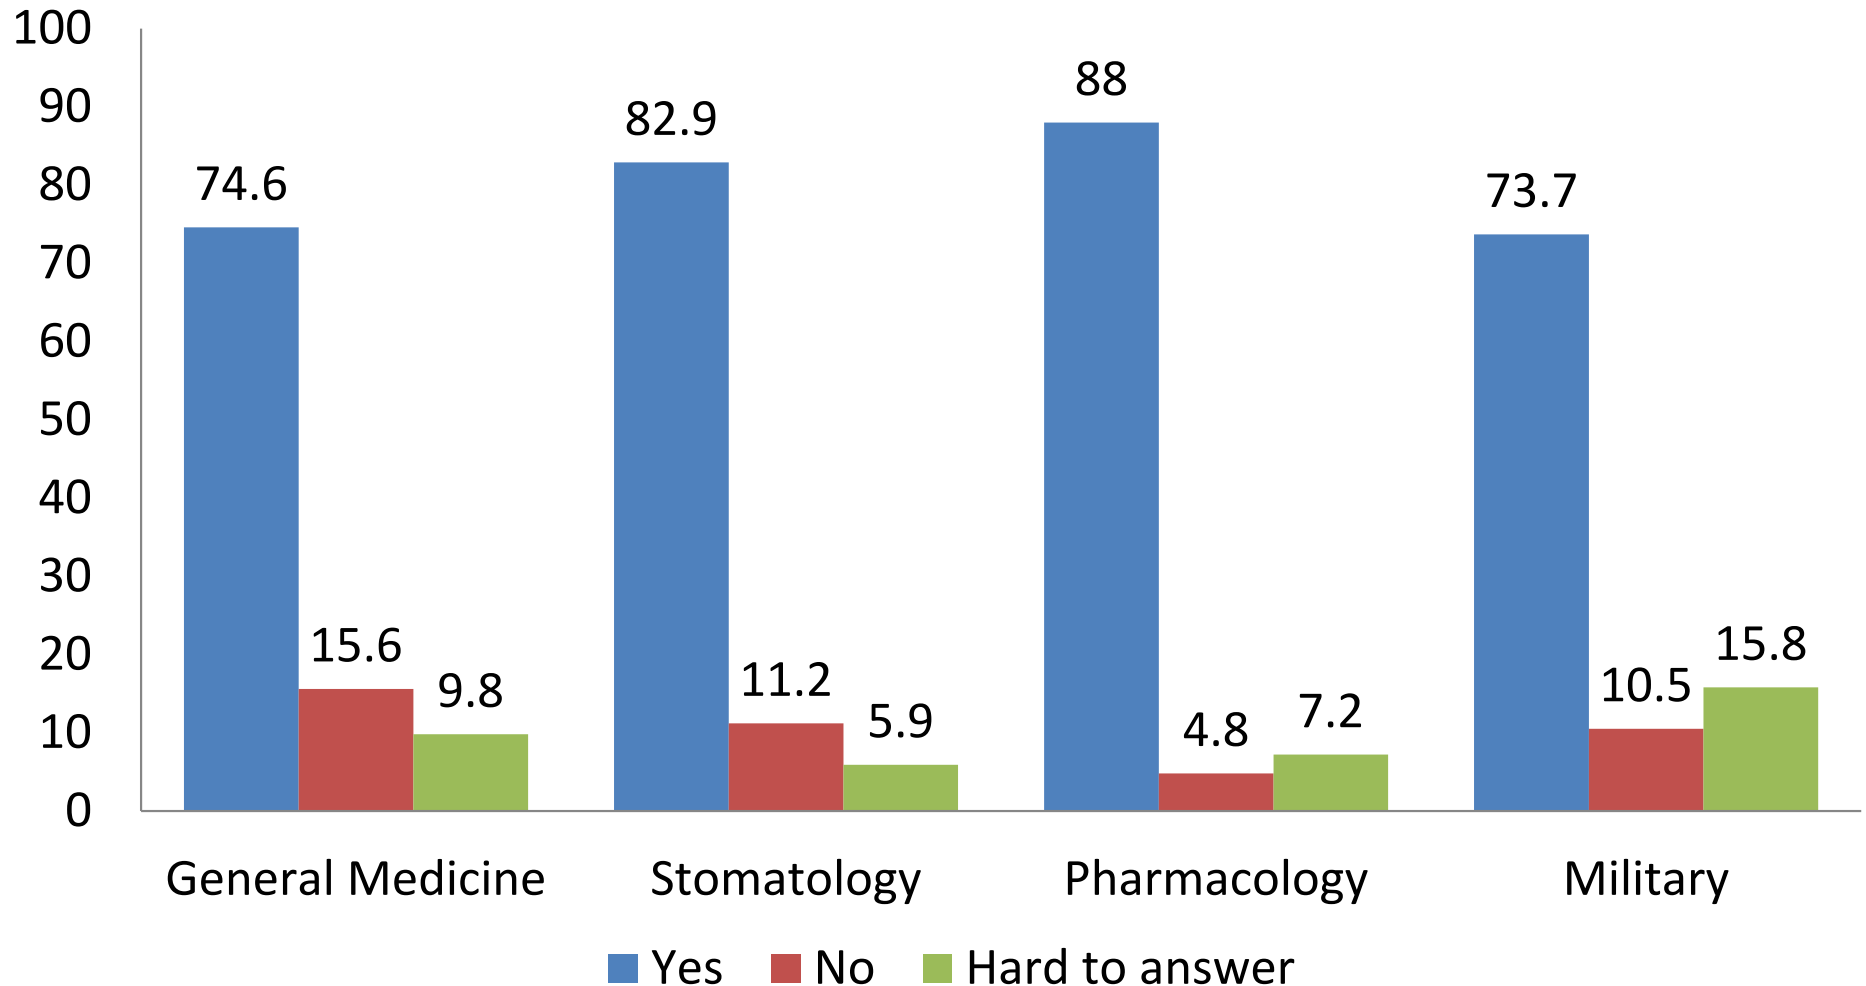

(depending on the grade received)

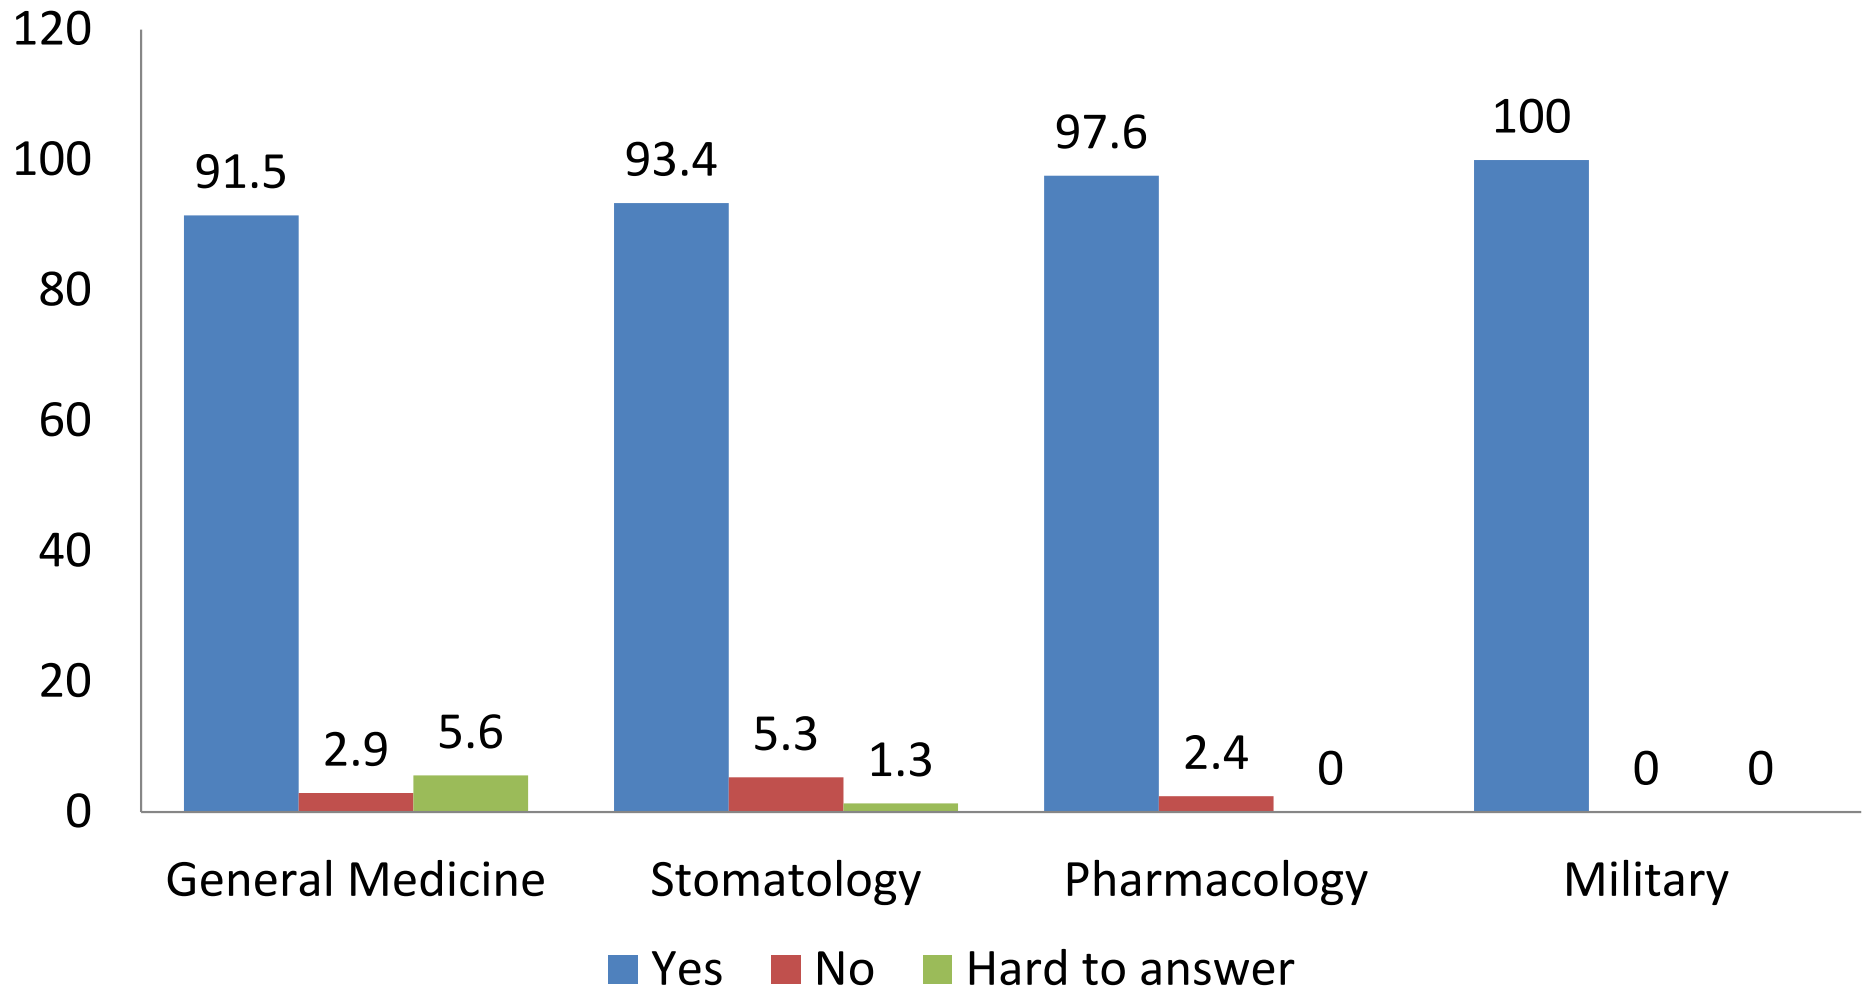

Did you have enough time to prepare for the exams?

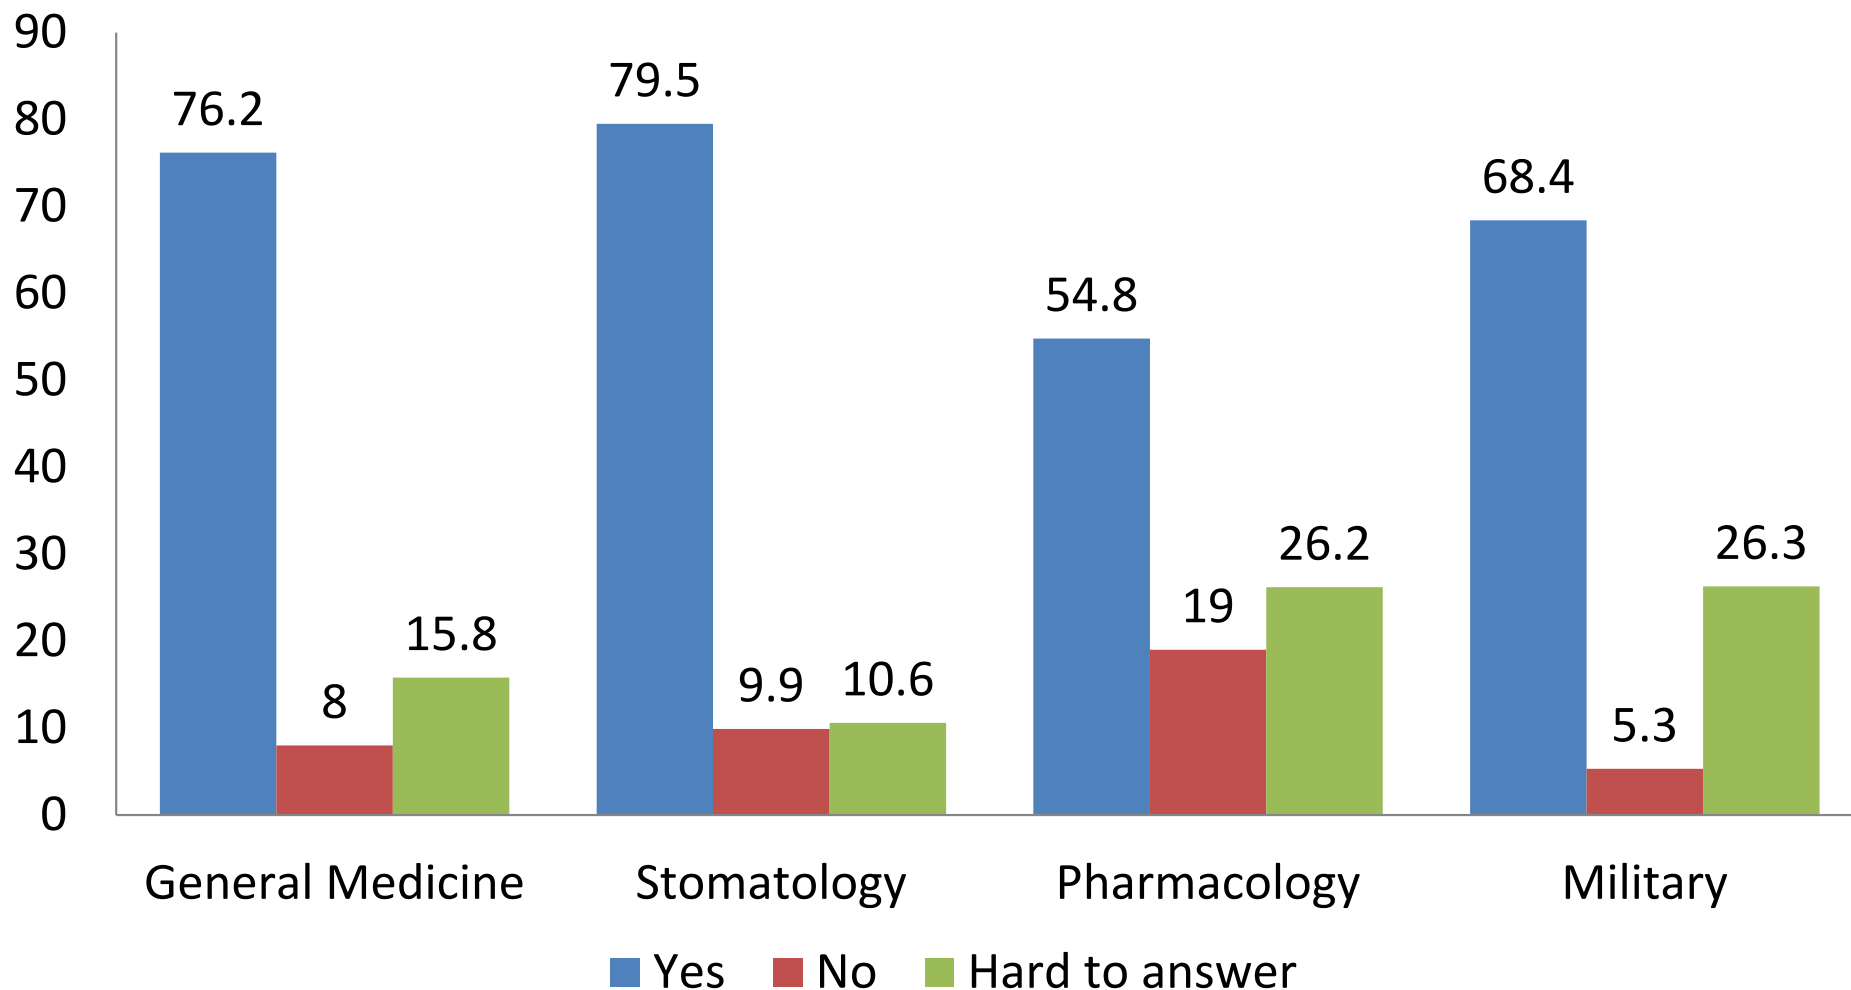

Did you have enough materials to prepare for the exams?

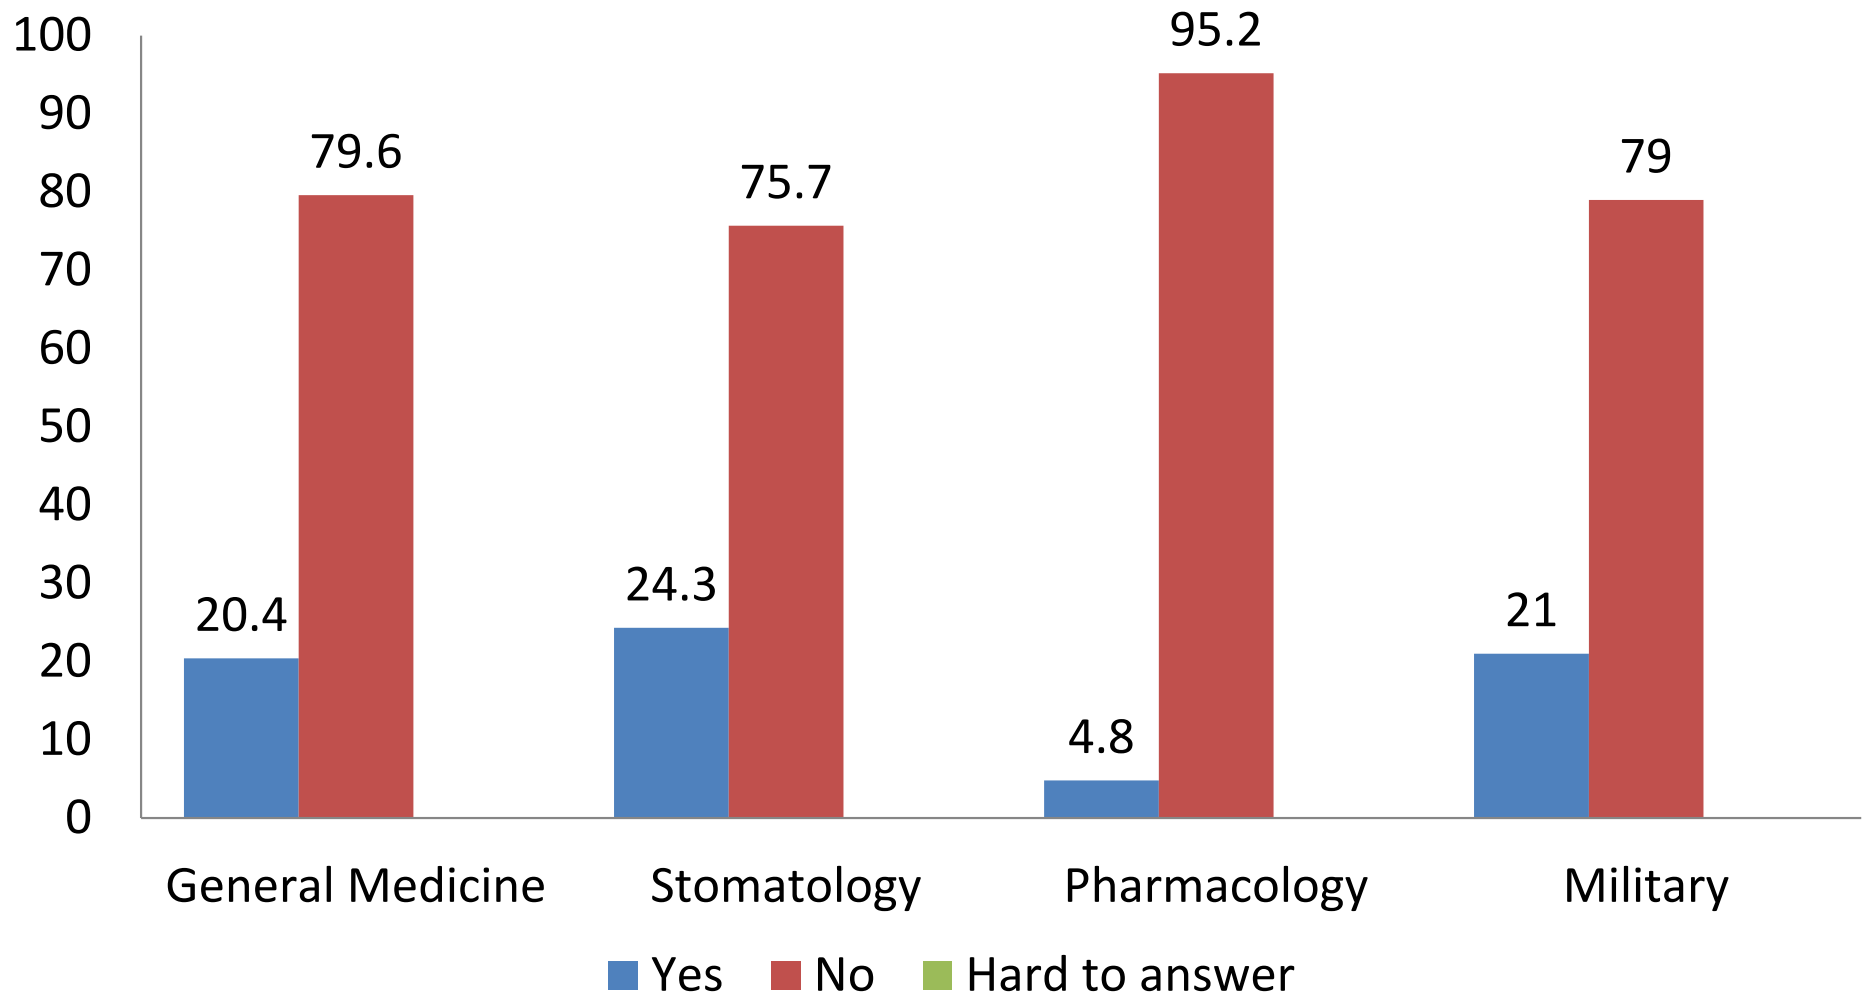

The questions included in the exams were derived from the subject syllabi

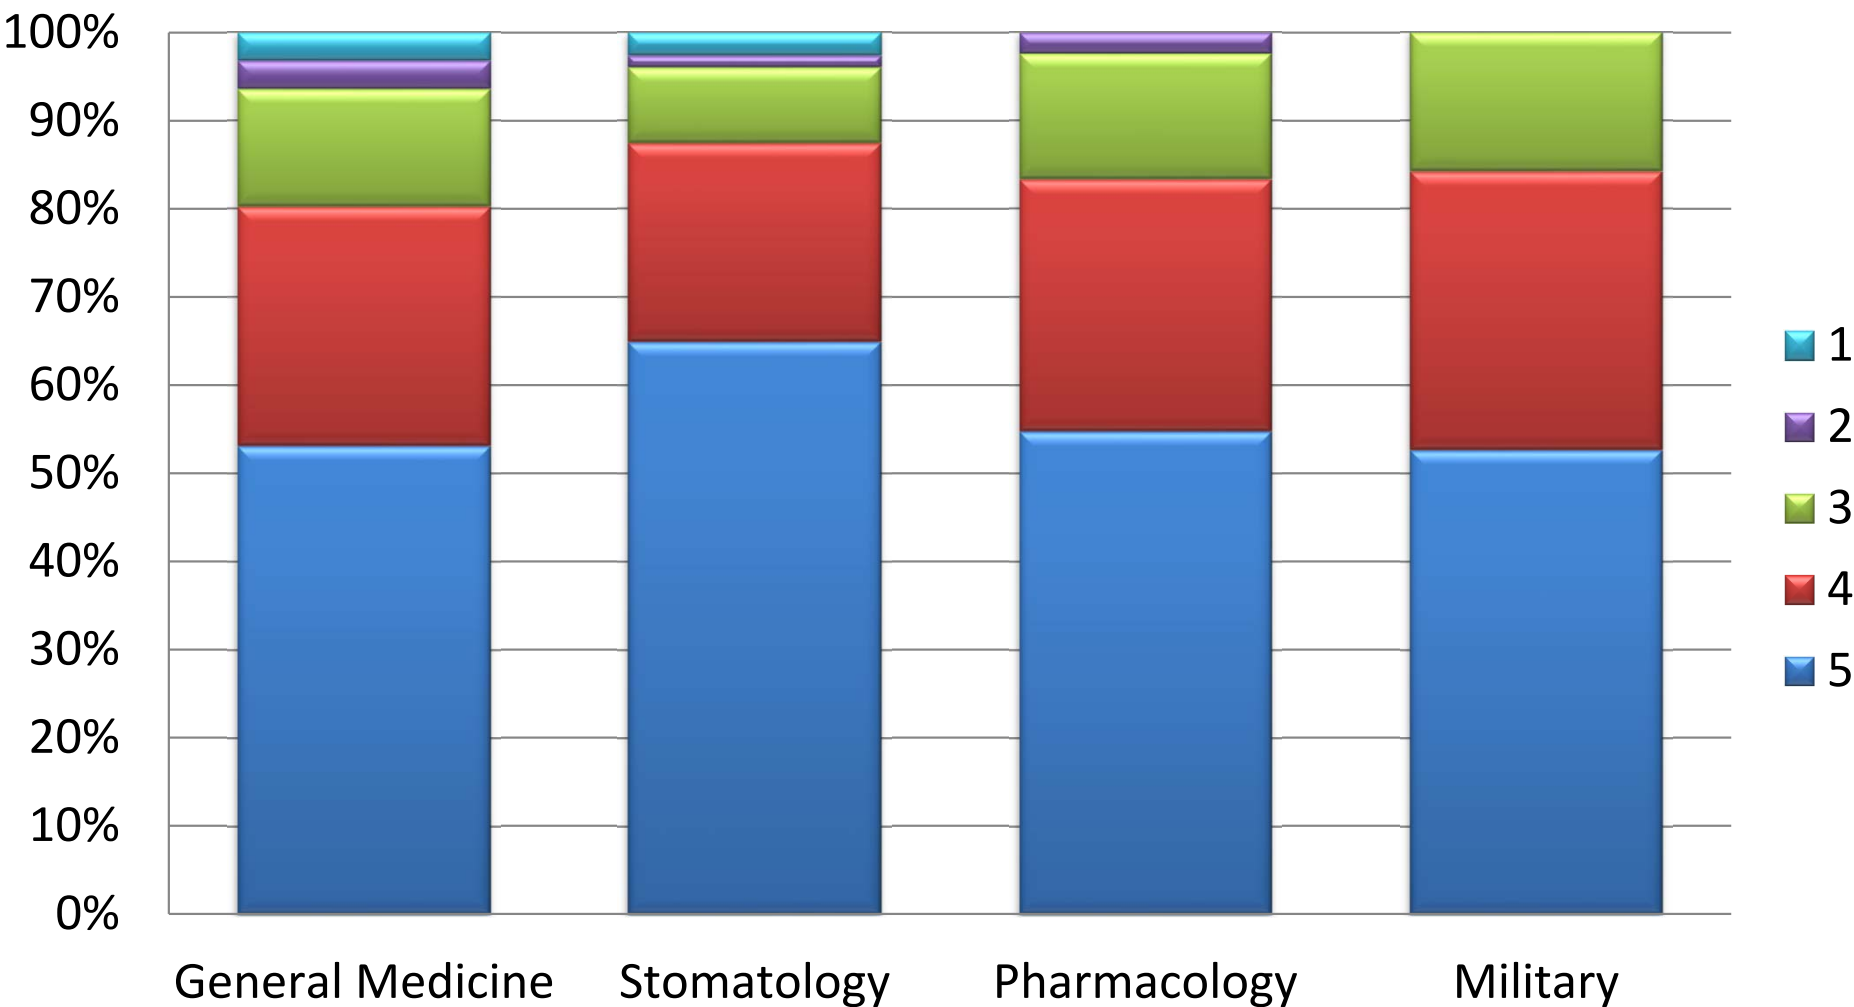

The questions and tasks included in the exams tested knowledge or abilities that you will need in your professional activities

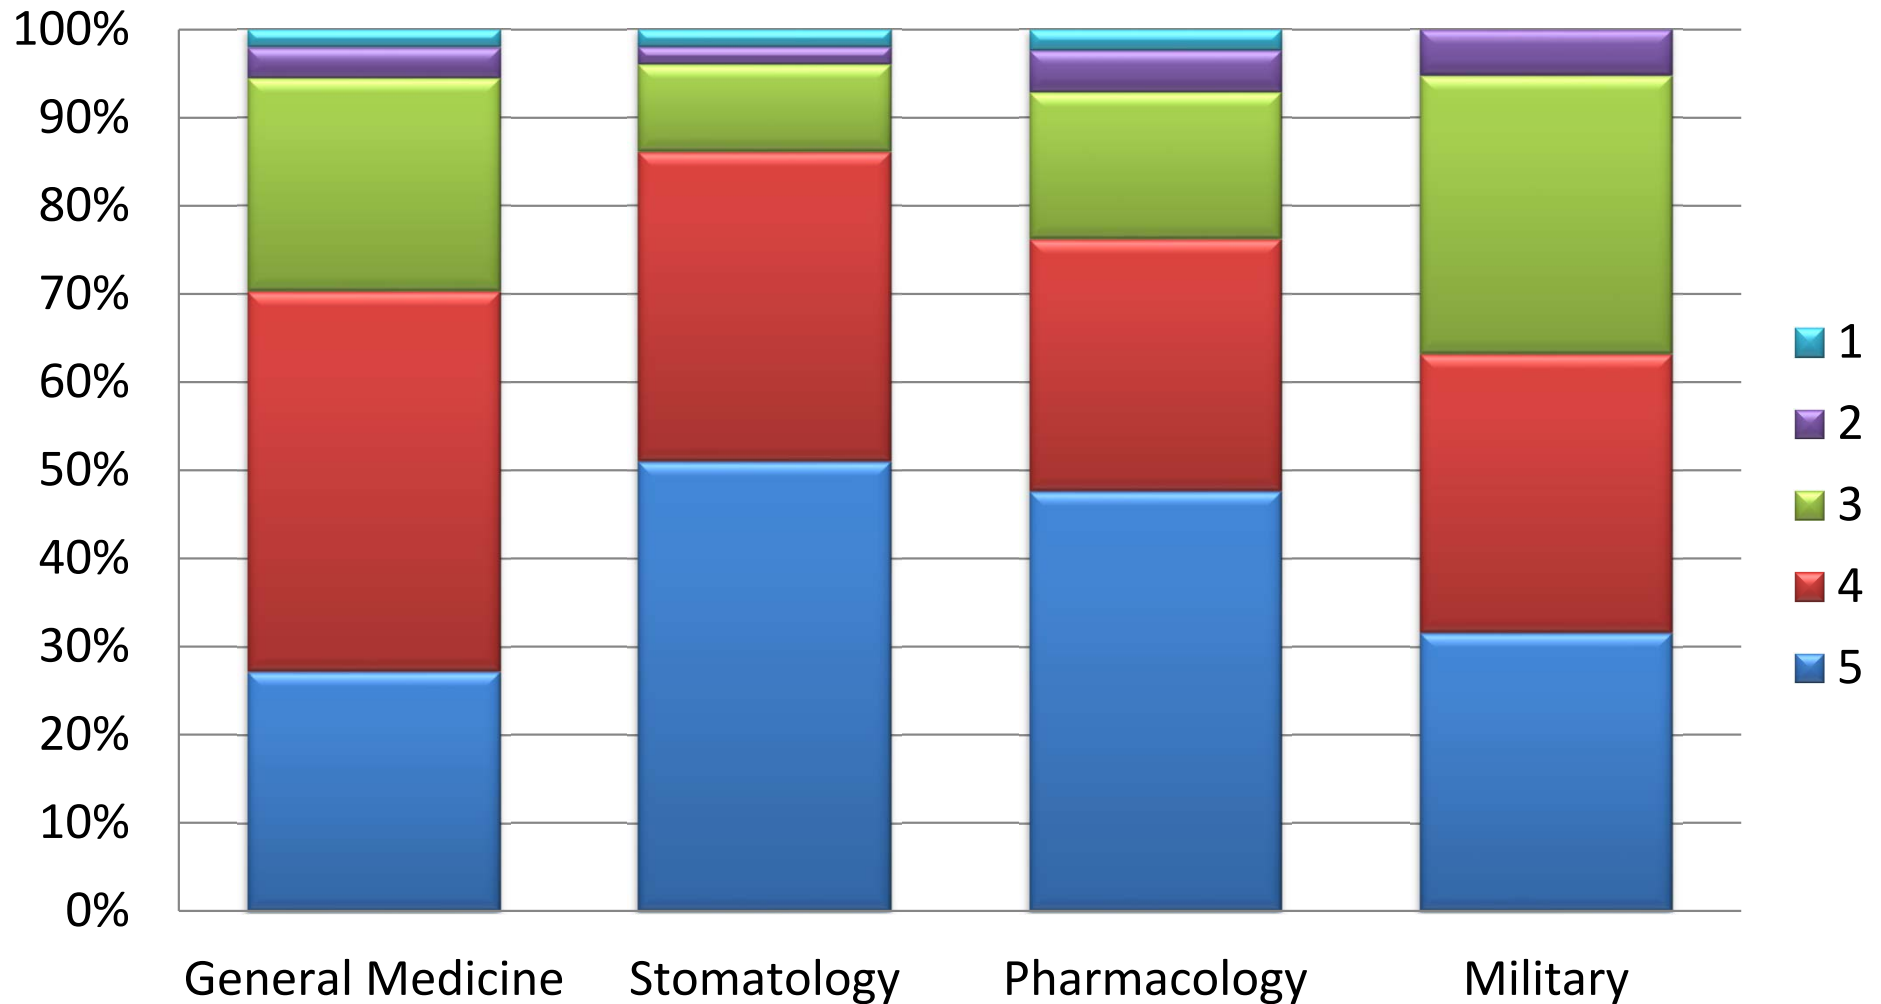

There were questions in the questionnaires that you felt were impossible to answer because you did not have the opportunity to acquire such knowledge or ability during your studies.

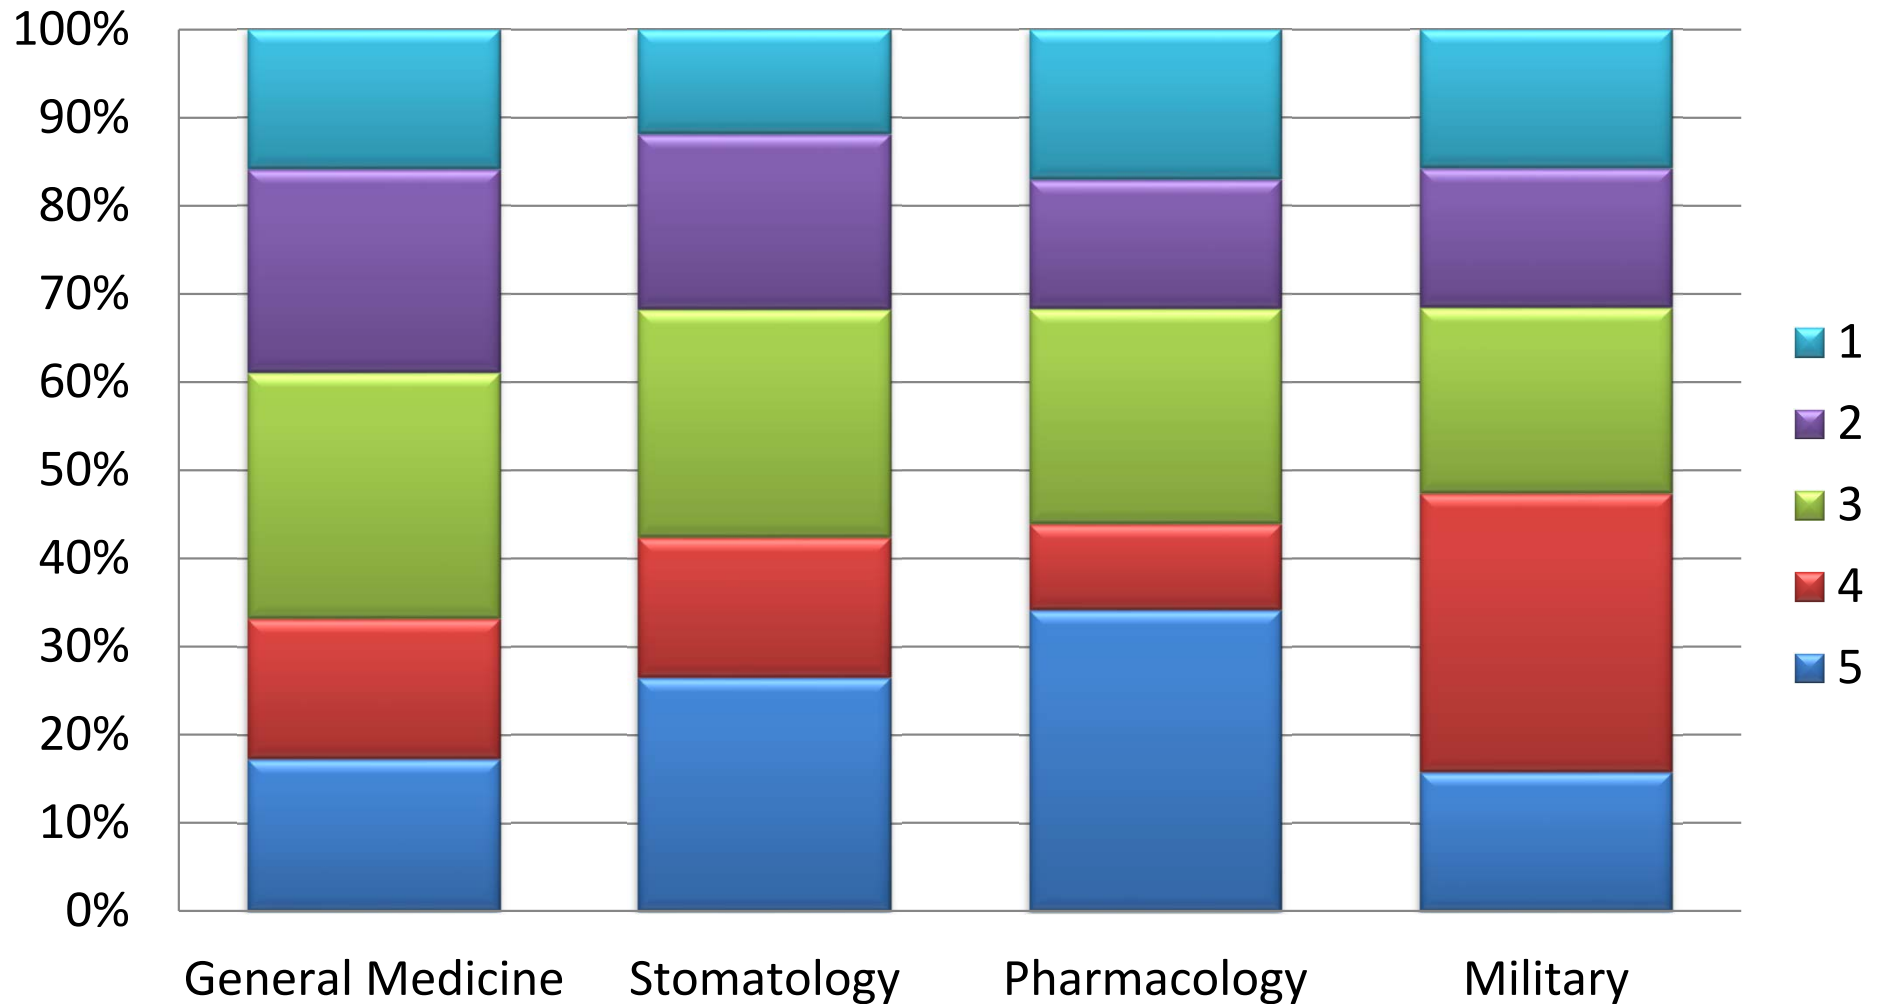

To what extent did the created environment contribute to the full manifestation of your knowledge and abilities (rate on a scale of 1-5 points, where 1 - you felt constrained, 5 - a relaxed environment was created that fully facilitated the manifestation of your knowledge and abilities)

How satisfied are you with the theoretical knowledge you have gained during the years of study (rate on a scale of 1-5, where 1 is completely unsatisfied, 5 is completely satisfied)

How satisfied are you with the practical skills you have acquired during the years of study (rate on a scale of 1-5, where 1 is completely unsatisfied, 5 is completely satisfied)

In your opinion, how has the remote teaching of some classes due to the COVID-19 pandemic affected the formation of your final knowledge and skills?

